URBAN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

2023 December Newsletter

Greetings to UIS students, parents, & partners!

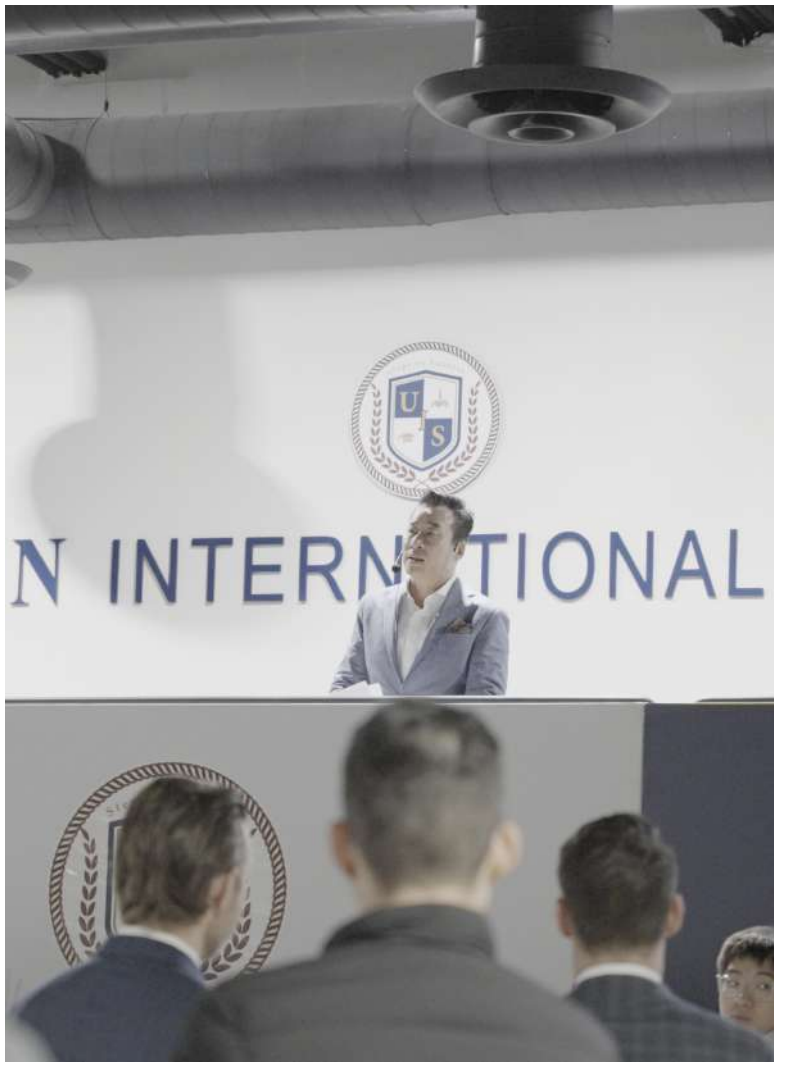
URBAN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL URBAN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

As 2023 comes to an end, let us look back at our fond memories of this past year.

They say, “The winter is a season of recovery and preparation.” 2023 is gone by and UIS is again preparing for the great spring to come for a big stretch. So let us enjoy this Winter holiday season with laughter and joy because what awaits is another great leap in the new year of 2024. The UIS team is sending you warm wishes and appreciation to express our humble appreciation for your endless support and trust. May the joy, health, and prosperity fill your home!

JAN

Moving



We are approaching the UIS campus' first birthday as it has almost been one year since the UIS family has come together under one facility.

MAY

Graduation Ceremony

We congratulate our graduate students for their academic achievements and amazing scholarship opportunities by throwing them an amazing graduation ceremony.

JUL

UIS Annual BBQ

Students look back fondly on the UIS annual BBQ where students enjoyed delicious BBQ treats, such as hamburgers and hotdogs.

SEPT

Math Elite Class

UIS introduced the creation of our Math Elite Class where an elite group of academically gifted students can practice their mathematics skills in preparation for the CEMC Waterloo math competition, and other Canadian math competitions.

OCT

Charlton Residence

We have launched the second main residence, Charlton Residence!

Nov

Fashion Show

We have had two wonderful fashion shows and a talent show this year!

Dec

Talent Show

Talented UIS Arts students turn to shine. To celebrate the winter Holiday, UIS talented students put together a talent show, consisting of singing, dancing, and playing an instrument! Holding a talent show each year is our way to help boost self-esteem, and confidence, as all our students will benefit from encouragement and self-assurance!

Thank you staff and students for making this year a wholesome, memorable, and eventful time! As we recap all the events from this year, we look forward to what the new year has in store for the UIS community!
